

ANORAK

THEO LINDQUIST

Theo Lindquist is a British interdisciplinary visual artist who's work spans creative direction, photography and film.

He has created arresting images for many of the world's leading brands including Gucci, Bvlgari, Adidas and Vogue.

Today, he specialises in experimental narrative cinema and has exhibited his award-winning films at institutions such as the Louvre and most recently The Broad Museum, where he presented Lykke Li's "EYEEYE", a multi-format visual album that challenges traditional music videos' role in contemporary culture.

Other notable projects include "Metagram: The World's First Glasses-Free All-Axis Holographic Film Experience".

Theo lives in Los Angeles.

CLICK HERE FOR THEO'S REEL